

A SPLENDID ROAD TO SWIFT CREEK

A Development Company to Establish an Urban Residential District.

A TITLED TRAMP ON THE ROAD

Italian Count Is Walking Twenty Thousand Miles on a Wager.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PETERSBURG, VA., November 21.—The South Chesterfield Development Association was organized last night at Mr. Howard James's residence, on the Richmond Turnpike, near this city, by residents and property owners between Petersburg and Swift Creek, who propose to make that part of Chesterfield county a beautiful urban residential district, a great feature of the plan being the construction of a macadamized road from this city to Swift Creek, which is a charming manufacturing village about four miles from Petersburg, near the line of the interurban electric railway.

The following officers were elected last night: President, Howard James; Vice-President, J. H. Percival; Secretary, Thomas Y. Snyder; Treasurer, J. Hampton Slater.

The next meeting will be held November 25th.

"Globe trotter" from Palermo, Italy, Count Ruggero Salvo, reached this city this morning from Richmond, and will leave to-night or to-morrow morning on his way to New York. He left Petersburg February 1, 1906, on a twenty-thousand-dollar wager that he could walk twenty thousand miles without money and without asking alms, which he has accomplished, according to the testimony of a number of witnesses.

The count claims to have walked over nearly all of Europe and South America, and a great part of the United States. He proposes to write a book in New York describing his travels, and then to return home and claim the wager.

Lawrence Ridout, of this city, was accidentally shot by a companion, Ernest Davis, while hunting in Prince George county yesterday. The young man received a large number of birdshot in the face and neck, but was not dangerously wounded, and is at his home, on Halifax Street, under the care of Dr. J. Bolling Jones.

A MOCK WEDDING.

Gave Spice to Social Entertainment in South Hill.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SOUTH HILL, VA., November 21.—One of the most enjoyable social events of the past few days was the birthday party given in honor of Mr. Bernard F. Jones, at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. B. Bluff, of this city. The party was decorated with cards and taste, and dancing, games and amusements of other kind were indulged in until a late hour.

When the guests assembled they were very much surprised to hear the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, and to see Miss Sarah Willie Bates and Mr. Norborne Smith enter the parlor and halt just in front of a temporary altar, where "Papa" Jones presided as the mock ceremony, much to the delight of all present.

The bride and groom then led the way to the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was served, after which dancing was again resumed.

CHESTER HIGH SCHOOL.

Will Give Entertainment—New Bank Does Well.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHESTER, VA., November 21.—Miss Kate E. Puller, of Richmond, assisted by other artists, will give an entertainment at the High School here, Friday evening of this week at 8 o'clock. This entertainment is for the benefit of the school, and the proceeds will go to pay for the organ bought by the principal. The entertainment will consist of vocal music, readings and recitations, and will be of the highest order.

The directors of the Chesterfield County Bank held a meeting here Tuesday afternoon, with Mr. T. K. Sands, the president. The directors were well pleased at the progress of the bank for the first three months of its operation. Mr. Wil-

The Cheapest Form of Health Insurance

YOU can buy Health Insurance now. Several good "Accident" Companies sell it.

Sixty dollars per year will bring you $25.00 per week, for every week you are sick.

But, your time alone may be worth far more than that.

And $200 per week might not pay for your suffering.

That's why "Cascaerat" Insurance, which prevents Sickness, is worth ten times as much money as other "Health" Insurance.

Yet "Cascaerat" Insurance will cost you less than Ten Cents a week.

That gives you a "Vest Pocket" Box to carry constantly.

One tablet taken whenever you suspect you need it will insure you against 90 per cent of all other ills likely to attack you.

Because 90 per cent of these ills begin in the Bowels, or exist through poor Nutrition.

Cascaerat don't purge, don't weaken, don't irritate, nor upset your stomach.

No, they act like Exercise on the Bowels, instead.

They stimulate the Bowel-Muscles to contract and propel the Food naturally past the little valves that mix Digestive Juices with Food.

The time to take a Cascaerat is the very minute you suspect you need one.

—When you have a touch of Heart-burn, Gas-belching, Acid-rising-in-throat, or a Coming-on-Cold.

Carry the "Vest Pocket" Box ready for business where it belongs, just as you would your Watch, Pocket-knife or Lead-pencil.

It costs only 10 cents. At any drugist.

Be sure you get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company, and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "G.C.C."

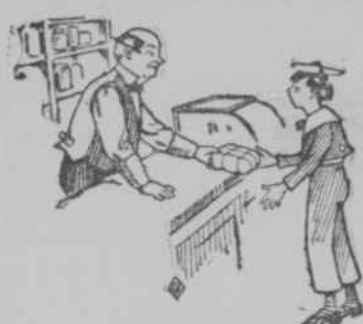

Two Men Sentenced for Unlawful Cutting in Amherst.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
AMHERST, VA., November 21.—The special grand jury which has been probing into the transactions of the board of supervisors, before adjourning to-day recommended to the court that the Commonwealth's attorney of this county be instructed to institute suit to recover back for the county sums of money appearing from the report of Messrs. Whitfield and Sandline to have been illegally drawn by the said supervisors.

It is stated that this sum will be over $500, leaving out what has been barred by the statute of limitations.

Joseph Laird and Edward Scholtz were to-day found guilty of unlawful cutting of Mr. Patterson, superintendent of the plant of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, in this county.

Laird was given one year in the penitentiary. Scholtz was given five.

STYLE

Isn't a commodity that you can buy in handy, dust-proof packages at your corner dealer's.

The ability to confer style is a gift. The designer that possesses it can be counted on the thumb, fore and middle fingers.

Our garments are designed expressly for us by a manufacturer who is a czar for detail.

Might as well try to explain a sunset to you as to attempt to picture in print the style of our clothes.

Just come!

JACOBS & LEVY,
The Abode of the Mode.

Ham Northrop, of the Passenger and Power company was elected a director of the bank.

Rev. J. T. Nowell, who is appointed to succeed Rev. H. J. Paylor, of the Methodist Church, on this circuit, is well known by the people, he having been on this charge for one year, three years ago.

The Methodists were very loath to give Mr. Paylor up, having had him only one year, and becoming much attached to him.

Master Ernest Ivey, and his sister, Mrs. Lloyd Moore, spent the day here to-day. Master Ivey is said to be improving somewhat.

Two Deserters.

Delivered by the Sheriff of Hanover to Naval Authorities.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HANOVER C. H., VA., November 21.—John Woolfolk, sheriff, is back from the Norfolk navy yard, where he took two deserters from the United States Army. These men came to Hanover Courthouse and gave themselves up to Sheriff Woolfolk, telling him that they had starved long enough, and asked him to take them up in jail and to give them something to eat. The sheriff telegraphed to the authorities at the navy yard and asked if two men were wanted, and received a reply that it was a fact and that $10 reward was offered for the delivery of the men. The authorities told Mr. Woolfolk that the men would go to the United States penitentiary for desertion.

OLD HOMESTEAD BACK.

Huntingdon Has Been Repurchased by Mr. Clay Carr.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
MILLWOOD, VA., November 21.—Mr. Clay Carr has just withdrawn the notice of his public sale of personal property, which was to have been held on the 21st. Mr. Carr has to-day purchased, at an advanced price, the fine Huntingdon estate, the former home of the Harrisons, situated near Boyce, recently sold by Mr. Clay Carr to Mr. Henry H. Mitchell for the sum of $25,000.

Marshal Morgan Treat Wants to Transfer Headquarters.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., November 21.—United States Marshal Morgan Treat, whose official residence is now in Richmond, will petition the Department of Justice for permission to transfer his headquarters from Richmond to Old Point Comfort for the Jamestown Exposition period next year. Most of the business of the office, the marshal thinks, will be in the vicinity of the exposition, and with his office at the exposition grounds he thinks it could be transacted with much greater dispatch. Mr. Treat was in Washington several days ago, and talked over the matter with the Department of Justice. Mr. Treat will also ask for several additional deputies for service during the exposition.

MOTHER'S HEART BREAKING FOR HIM

James Orlando Bracken, Thirteen-Year-Old Runaway Boy, Located in Danville.

THE FATAL NUMBER THIRTEEN

A Member of New York Thirteen Party Dies on the Train.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, VA., November 21.—James Orlando Bracken, the thirteen-year-old runaway son of Mrs. Florida Bracken, of Bedford, N. C., has been located in this city, but all efforts to induce him to return home have proved fatal. Mrs. Bracken refuses to give the police authority to arrest her boy, and says that she wants them to persuade the youth to return. The mother is said to be prostrate with grief, and friends fear that she will die of a broken heart if her son does not come home.

Young Bracken left home last August, and for weeks wandered aimlessly through the country. The unscrupulous man has secured employment in a cigarette factory here, and turns a deaf ear to all pleadings.

George Long, an escaped convict from the North Carolina penitentiary, was taken back to-day to serve out his time, and in fact trial on a charge of attempting to burn the house of a former enemy, who testified against him at the trial, which resulted in his conviction. Long, when first arrested, fought savagely before being overpowered. He was released on a writ of habeas corpus on account of some delay in the arrival of extradition papers, but later re-arrested, when the papers came.

After gaining his liberty he came to Danville, where he was joined by his young wife, who is now in the city.

The No. 12 proved unlucky, to say the least, for Amelia Polmette, a negro woman, who suddenly became ill with acute indigestion on a train between Clarksville and Danville last night, and died in a few minutes. The woman was one of a party of thirteen negroes, who were traveling together from New York to Charleston, S. C., on a block train. One of the other women in the party said that before leaving New York, when she learned what number would compose the party, felt that some great misfortune would overtake one of the thirteen.

CONFIRMS SALE OF BAY SHORE

Judge Waddill Issues an Order Making Final Disposition of the Case.

FOUR YEARS IN LITIGATION

Will Impose a Fine on Merchant for Improper Use of Mails.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., November 21.—Judge Waddill, in the United States District Court at Norfolk, issued final orders to-day in the Bay Shore Terminal Company litigation matters. It appears to be a knockout blow for Frank D. Zell and associates who have been trying to hold up the commissioners' sale of the road, made last spring.

The court enjoins Zell and associates from instituting any further local proceedings to prevent the confirmation of the sale and the delivery of the Bay Shore properties to E. B. Smith & Co., of Philadelphia.

It also entered an order setting out the fact that Zell was a purchaser of bonds of the company, pending the suit, and that he had been represented before the court during the litigation by the trustee in the mortgage.

An appeal is taken by Zell from the order. He was required to give bond therein in the sum of $50, but Judge Waddill refused to grant a writ to stay further proceedings.

Finally, an order is issued by the court, confirming the sale of the Bay Shore properties, setting forth the fact that
